Lines • Curves • Pencil Control

Dear Grown-Up,

Before letters come STROKES. The lines, curves and loops in this book are the pencil movements every letter is built from — so mastering them first makes handwriting feel easy instead of frustrating.

How to use it: start at the green dot, trace the dotted path, and follow the arrows the shapes make. Hold the pencil with thumb + two fingers (the 'tripod' grip).

Laminate + dry-erase to reuse. Short, happy sessions beat long ones. ☐

Lines Down

Start at the green dot and pull straight down.
